Celebrating Community in Eastington

Your news.....your ECN!

Written by You, produced by Sue Halas and delivered by many!

Dear Readers,

Welcome to our new look magazine. ISSUE 200! It may be smaller but as the saying goes, size doesn't matter!

A big thank you to all our advertisers ... without your support again this year, we would not be able to produce this magazine.

Another BIG thank you to the Mid-Counties Co-op who awarded us a grant of £500.00 to help with printing costs. Alongside an application form I had to send in photos.

Here are a few of the winning snaps!

Best Wishes & Thank You

Embracing the beauty of Autumn planting: Why now is the perfect time to start your garden

As we head into Autumn, you might assume that gardening season is coming to an end. However, don't hang up your gardening gloves just yet! Autumn actually offers a golden opportunity to start or expand your garden. Here's why;

- 1. Cooler Temperatures. Autumn's milder temperatures create a favorable environment for young plants to grow. With the scorching heat of summer subsiding, plants can establish their roots without the stress of extreme heat, allowing them to develop strong foundations before winter arrives.
- 2. Less Watering. During Autumn, there's typically more moisture in the air and less evaporation, reducing the need for frequent watering. Plus, as plants direct their energy towards root growth, they'll be more equipped to endure the drier months ahead.
- 3. Fewer Pests. Many common garden pests tend to decrease in number as temperatures drop. This gives your garden a chance to thrive without constant pest-related battles.
- 4. Spring bulbs. Planting bulbs in Autumn is a low cost, easy way to guarantee Spring time joy. Snowdrops, Daffodils, Tulips and Allium's will provide a wonderful succession of colour.

So, don't let autumn's falling leaves fool you into thinking your gardening dreams should hibernate. Embrace the magic of this season and let your garden flourish. Now is the perfect time to get your hands in the soil and let your garden thrive.

Eastington Village Hall

Eastington Village Hall has been a part of the local community and at the heart of the village for many years. The hall is available for events, from one-off celebrations to regular gatherings. If you need a space for a celebration, a meeting or a regular activity, please get in touch........

https://hallbookingonline.com/eastington

The cost of hiring the hall is now £8.00 an hour. The exception is welfare groups/activities, which is £7.00 an hour.

Did you know that the village hall is a registered charity and is managed by a set of trustees/committee?

We are a very friendly bunch of people who meet regularly to ensure the hall is well managed and is in good repair. At the last meeting, held on Friday 25th August, improvements to the hall were discussed at length. We are now waiting for quotes to improve the toilet facilities and install a baby change area.

The Village Hall AGM will be held on Friday 24th November at 7pm.

The AGM is open to everyone, so if you you would like to find out more about the Village Hall or maybe you have questions...Please pop along at 7pm..

You will definitely get a warm welcome.

We have been very happy to welcome back children and families and are excited to welcome new families into playgroup. It is so lovely to see so many new faces and we are always happy to see how the children grow and develop during their playgroup journey.

We started the new academic year blessed with good weather and enjoyed this time at our allotment, making dens and looking after all we planted last term. Our pumpkins have grown wonderfully and the children loved helping to carry them back to playgroup. We have spent time exploring the local environment and have picked some blackberries on our walk. We then used our fine motor skills to squash the berries to paint with. Activities such as squashing, pinching and twisting are not only great fun but are also essential to build strength in children's hands and wrists to develop hand-eye coordination and strengthen the muscles for early writing.

It is never too early to register your child with us. Sessions for September 2024 are already filling up, so please contact us on 07977342742 or email us at eastingtonplaygroup@hotmail.com to arrange a visit or for a registration form.

Eastington Memories Thank you to Megan Timbrell

The 'Missing' Mile.... A school trip 1967

Anyone fancy a pint?

Stephen Mills

It's surprising what fragments of history you can stumble across if you keep your eyes open. Things often pop up in the most unexpected places. A few years ago, the ditches along Middle Street were cleaned out. Out came the usual assortment of cans, crisp packets and other detritus. But amongst this was a little piece of history that harked back to a century ago, when times were undoubtedly harder and life in general less certain.

Part of a 19th century stoneware spirit flagon from the ditch opposite the former Royal Oak in Middle Street – from David Legge, wine and spirit merchant of Berkeley

Many villagers worked either in the cloth mills or on local farms - wages were low, working hours long, cottages cold and damp, and people often went hungry. There were few opportunities for the average worker to escape the relentless daily grind. Unsurprisingly, this often drove men to the bottle, and the pub became the only possible means of escape.

In 1838, Eastington had a population of 715 and was home to two pubs and 23 beershops - that's one for every 29 villagers. Compare this with Stroud, that had a population of 8607 and 27 pubs and 68 beer houses — one for every 91 residents. Clearly, alcohol was an important part of many Eastingtonians' life!

Beershops were often unlicensed and comprised little more than a converted room in a private house or cottage. They were a constant problem, especially where mill workers were concerned, as this was often the first port of call after getting paid. Drunkenness was a common problem, and many of the local mill owners hated them, referring to them as 'the greatest curse and most infernal evil that ever befell this country - they are nests of vice'. They go on to note that men's love of the beershop resulted in them staying there until they had 'drained their pockets', then in desperation, even resorting to pawning their clothes and other possessions. It was reported that in some places, no money ever changed hands, with men paying for their drink with candles, bacon, and groceries.

But it wasn't only the men who came in for criticism. Charles Hooper, Eastington's mill owner, commented that:

"factory wives are generally slatterns and bad managers; they neglect their children; the house is seldom well regulated; the domestic hearth has no endearments; and the husband goes gloomy and sulky to the beer-shop."

It all sounds very grim...

By the end of the century, things had moved on a bit, with the village now having nine licenced premises. Some survived well into the 20th century, and older residents will probably remember names that included the Royal Oak in Middle Street, the Castle Inn at Millend, the Britannia at Claypits, The Fox Inn in Bath Road, the Bell Inn at Westend, and the New Inn at Newtown. There was also the Kings Arms and a beershop at Nupend. And of course, there was the Kings Head and the Victoria Inn, now the Old Badger. As we all know, only the latter two now survive, most of the others having become private houses. Both serve the community well and are hubs

The Kings Head

Each of the village watering holes undoubtedly had their own histories and stories to tell. Each would have had their regular clientele, often made up of men wasting their meagre wages, seemingly determined to drive their families into poverty. Happily, things have since changed, and the local hostelries are now worlds away from the sad, gloomy places they once were.

But it's strange how a small scrap of a discarded broken flagon can prompt a trip down memory lane. And the lesson? Keep your eyes open when the ditches get cleared again – who knows what might resurface!

EASTINGTON PRIMARY SCHOOL

The children in Class 4 enjoying being responsible for the children's garden area each year.

We weed and sow flower seeds and bulbs ready for the spring – we especially enjoy the cheerful daffodils.

We also plant baby vegetable plants. We water them over the Summer Term and weed around them so they have space to grow.

This year we had a bumper crop of tomatoes, green beans, courgettes, marrows, butternut squashes and a variety of gourds.

We sold some of our vegetables to parents so we can buy more plants next year. We gave some vegetables to Dursley Community Food Hub to help others too.

This year we entered the Eastington Show with our vegetables. We received a 'Highly Commended' certificate for our giant marrow. We came first in the 6 red tomato and 6 green bean categories. We were thrilled to win the 'Best green bean in show' special award too! Amazing!

Eastington Churchyard and Burial Ground

A Big THANK YOU to Joe Loveridge..... for the huge effort that he goes to, in order to keep the Churchyard and the Burial Ground looking so 'well kept' and 'cared for'. It is so easy these days to overlook the amount of work involved, in all weathers, in the constant maintenance of the Churchyard and the Burial Ground.

Thank you Joe , for your care and attention.

Best wishes Bill Edwards (and all the Eastington residents)

Unfortunately, due to the atrocious weather in July, we were unable to hold our concert courtesy of lan and Jane Hey in their lovely garden. It was such a shame as, with our director David, we had been working hard since the start of the year. We did however visit Wisma Mulia and gave the first performance of our song composed for the Three Choirs Festival (the oldest music festival in the world!) This time, as well as the usual mix of songs and poems, we added a singalong which was well received by both staff and residents. We always enjoy our twice a year visits to Wisma.

At the end of July, with 2 Gloucestershire primary schools, Cheltenham Youth choir, a professional singer, solo violinist and other instrumentalists, we took part in a community concert (as part of the Three Choirs Festival) in a packed Cathedral. The morning rehearsal on the day was rather rushed, however, we redeemed ourselves and it was great to have the opportunity to sing in the Cathedral alongside professional musicians.

As a choir our repertoire is an eclectic mix of songs, including popular songs from the 60's, 70's right up to more modern ones, songs from the older musicals, folk songs as well as songs by John Rutter. Occasionally we sing a more spiritual song and we really love singing Carols at Christmas time. We hope to be singing in a number of churches this Christmas, as well as at Saul Junction and in the Three Horseshoes in Frampton. Details, with dates, will be in the December newsletter.

Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. No auditions are required and new singers are always welcome. You do not need to read music, though it helps and we rarely learn a new piece without having music and words to remind ourselves of what we are singing! We all just enjoy singing, so if you do too then please come along and join us.

For further information contact Pam Greenfield on 01452 740126 or pam.g@btconnect.com or just turn up on a Thursday evening

An independent funeral service providing personal care to the surrounding community.

We are here to care for you in your time of need and offer a 24-hours a day, 365 days a year service.

Pre-paid funeral plans available, with good honest advice given.

And just like that another summer has passed! And what an eventful one it was! We celebrated our 4th birthday in July and what a night it was, burgers, ciders, ice creams and lots of full bellies. We're so thankful for your continued support over the last 4 years.

With Autumn creeping up on us, we couldn't possibly not mention PUMPKIN PICKING! Our patch is opening Saturday 14th October but make sure to pre-book your slot on our website now! We've been growing these bad boys since May and let us tell you, there are some absolute monsters on our patch! Last year we spooked the socks off our customers with dangerously delicious Ice Screams. This year will only be more spooktacular!!

In addition to our pumpkin patch, there will also be a mini Halloween trail for your little ones in our garden. Running from 20th October - 4th November. This is free $ no booking required!

Our gorgeous, home-reared beef is back in stock the week commencing 9th October. You can pre-order on our website or in shop now! It's also the season to head back to your roots. And by that I mean delicious British grown parsnips, swede, carrots...we couldn't be more excited to get back to hearty roast dinners.

National Apple Day is celebrated every year on the 21st October. This year we are teaming up with Eastington Community Orchard (ECO) to press your lovely apples in to glorious juice. Please come along and join us from Ilam on Saturday 21st October for a great community event and squish some apples with us.

Perfect for every generation of the family.

On the 30th of October we have the lovely Karen Green back for her Autumn Foliage workshop. Last time your creations were beautiful, This beginner friendly workshop will guide you in making a water colour and pen masterpiece. Christmas willow & wreath workshops are booking up fast on our website - don't miss out!

WALKS AND WATERWAYS

Paul Halas

In Eastington we are very favoured to have a wonderful aquatic habitat right on our doorstep. The River Frome, and the Stroudwater Canal, pass the northern fringe of the village and not only provide us with some gorgeous walks but also a glimpse into a different world: that of fishes, amphibians, water-fowl, mammals both retiring and predatory, spectacular insects and abundant flora.

The whole of the Frome catchment is within easy reach of Eastington because our river is a perfect river in miniature, about twenty-five miles in length according to Wikepedia, nearly all of it walkable. I shall start a journey down the Frome from Sapperton Tunnel, because for much of the year the stream-bed of the upper river is dry. At a stroke our walk is reduced to a mere twenty miles.

While the upper river is dry, there is still a profusion of wet-loving plants to enjoy. By the course of the nascent river, and the ghostly remnant of the canal, there is a profusion of willow, gypsywort, common reeds and bullrushes, ragged robin, yellow water iris – spectacular in May – and the increasingly ubiquitous Himalayan Balsam – an invasive pest with pretty pink flowers, a subtle scent and explosive pods that can shoot their seeds over several metres.

The three acre lake at Baker's Mill, just down the hill from Frampton Mansell, was once a reservoir for the canal, but it is now a wildlife sanctuary. The adjoining property is probably best known as an otter sanctuary, but the lake itself is home to a variety of water-fowl, including grebe and herons as well as the more commonplace swans, moorhens and coots. Going back twenty and thirty years an angling syndicate had rights to the fishing on the water, and passers-by often saw large carp swimming back and forth in the gin-clear water. Now the area is fenced-in, for the protection of the wildlife no doubt, and the water silty and cloudy. Maybe not so good for the carp, but a haven for water-fowl.

Below the lake there is now water in the river, even at the tail-end of this patchy summer. Although the entire watercourse upstream from Chalford ran dry last year, many types of water-plants and fish are already recolonising the stream. There is Canadian pondweed, streamer weed, water crow-foot and festoons of watercress. Small fish can be seen again; minnows, bullheads, sticklebacks and a few small, intrepid trout are no doubt rediscovering old haunts.

Approaching Chalford itself, the river continues to dovetail with old canal, all the while growing as springs and small streams add to its flow. It passes the recreation ground at Chalford, where children love to bathe (and soak their parents) in hot weather, and trundles by houses and gardens, looking more and more like a proper little river – which until recent droughts contained numerous fat and tempting brown trout. Let us hope it fully recovers.

Then, after passing under the A419, it transforms itself once more as it enters the industrial length... Which will be described in the next issue -

Most of us understand how important exercise is for our overall well-being. While some people can commit to consistent workout plans, others cannot for many reasons. Exercise or movement snacking is an easy and effective way to add physical activity to your daily routine.

The idea is to add short bouts of movement throughout the day, which is easier to manage than a longer workout session. There shouldn't be any need for equipment to head off to the gym or any elaborate planning; a movement snack can happen anywhere, anytime!

The possibilities are endless regarding movement snacking, a quick power walk to the post box, walking lunges around your living room, or just marching on the spot count as long as your heart rate increases. Even doing household chores like hoovering or gardening can be counted as long as you have some intent! Start by looking at your day and identify where you spend a lot of time sedentary or if you have a spare few minutes and challenge yourself to add movement. The little and often approach can make it much easier to start adding movement into your daily routine. Almost anywhere and anytime can be suitable for this type of snacking; in fact, I actively encourage you to snack more!

If you have any questions or need guidance on how to start, call us on 01452 883232 to speak to one of our team.

With belated summer now giving way to autumn, it's time to gather in the main fruit harvest again. ECO volunteers have been doing this since 2011 and producing apple juice with our unique diamond labels for sale at local fairs. By the time you read this, we will have had our first pressing session and bottles will be available shortly in the Eastington Farm Shop.

Do you have surplus apples and/or pears?

You can bring surplus fruit to Hazel Cottage, Millend GL10 3SF at any time. ECO volunteers will be pressing and bottling juice on 7th October and 21st October. Ideally, ring me on (01453) 823425 beforehand.

Our thanks expressed in bottles of juice as usual!

Parish Apple Day – 21st October from 11.00 am
This year we will be at the Eastington Farm Shop for a change. Please feel free to not only bring any spare apples or pears but hang out with us to learn some of the skills of preparing and pressing the fruit. This is suitable for anyone from 4 to 94, with appropriate supervision, of course.

Tom Low, Chairman

St. Michael and All Angels Church Eastington Latest News

First, we welcome our new Team Rector, Liz Palin whose appointment was confirmed in August. Liz, assisted by Dave Bishop will lead the ministry team of vicars and lay readers who work hard to maintain the services throughout the Stroudwater Team of churches and to provide pastoral care.

Following the successful "Big Wrap" in November last year when we packed well over 200 shoe boxes and parcels for children in Ukraine and delivered two van loads of parcels to Gloucester before the onward journey to Ukraine in time for Christmas, we are hosting a similar event this year specifically to meet the needs of new mums and their babies. This will take place at St Michaels and All Angels Church Eastington on 21st October 2023 at 10.30 when tea/coffee and cakes will be provided and any donations made will go towards the transportation costs of getting them out to Ukraine.

The objective is to provide maternity homes/hospitals in Ukraine with essential items for newly born babies and their mothers packed into specially made bags.

A list of the items is below and is available in Church:

nappies newborn, 0-3 months hats, mittens baby powder, shampoo, bubble bath, baby cream muslin cloths cotton wool/cotton buds maternity pads baby wipes & nappy bags breast pumps baby grows newborn, 0 - 3 months baby bottles, baby formula baby cot blankets/covers baby brush/comb baby vests (body suit) socks, bibs scratch mittens matinee baby cardigans, baby jackets

Preferably new but second-hand items of clothing, bedding, equipment etc if in good condition.

If you would like to get involved with this, especially the packing, then please contact Mike/Jacky on 01453 828682/07821819401

Church Services

In the forthcoming weeks we will celebrate Harvest Festival on Sunday 8th October 2023.

Our normal Remembrance Day service will take place on 12th November 2023 followed by a wreath laying ceremony at the War Memorial in the Churchyard. Please note this will be at the earlier time of 10.45 am so that a minute's silence can be observed at 11am.

Looking further ahead we will be having our Carol Service on 10th December and the Christingle Service at the usual time of 6pm on Christmas Eve 24th December 2023. Hopefully we will have a packed church again for this delightful candlelit service in aid of the Childrens Society charity.

In the meantime, services are otherwise unaffected and will continue in October and November, as normal, on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month.

Food Bank Update

Thank you all for continued generous contributions to the church collection basket. The deliveries to the Food Bank warehouse in Stroud are always gratefully received and it is noted that donations from the St Michael & All Angels' collection point have kept up a fairly steady appearance at the warehouse door, despite the rising costs of food and household items that affect us all.

Currently, the warehouse is overwhelmed with pasta, cereal and tea and the office requests that these items are avoided for the time being. The website (strouddistrict.foodbank.org) and the poster attached to the church basket give a suggested 'shopping list' of useful items.

Ukraine

We continue to maintain a collection point in the Church for specific items for Ukraine. The list is as follows:

Boots and new socks, baby food and hygiene items, tinned food, chocolate, torches, batteries, medicines, medical equipment, adult hygiene, clean new underwear, and working android tablets.

All items collected are taken to the Polish Association and Ukrainian Church in Gloucester who then transport the goods overland to the areas in Ukraine where the need is greatest.

County Councillor Report – September 2023

Councillor Stephen Davies

One of the most important challenges with the development of new houses and business premises is the need for the appropriate infrastructure to support them. This includes roads, schools and medical facilities. I accept that some people object to all development but many of us recognise the need for new houses and employment, but just ask that the supporting services are included.

The Stroud District Local Plan, which is designed to allocate where housing and employment is to go over the next 20 to 30 years is the mechanism where these decisions on roads, schools and medical services are made. Unfortunately, the Government Inspector has reviewed the new local plan and found major issues with it, particularly raising concerns about the capacity of Junction 12 and 14. There are many implications from this, but going forward the District Council will have to work with National Highways and County Council amongst others to find a solution to this.

Personally, I am pleased that these important issues have been called out as I have always had concerns about the plan, and will be working with all involved in the hope that a solution can be found. However it does have implications particularly as we have an application for housing just off Grove Lane submitted by Hitchens, as well as potential one off applications by speculative developers. It is not clear at the moment how the District Council plan to resolve the Inspectors issues, but there is real concern about the implications of not having a Local Plan.

I will keep you updated on this.

As ever if there is anything else I can help you with you can email me at cllr. Stephen.davies@stroud.gov.uk or call me on 07802 595 307.

Bonfire Night Recipe Chocolate Apples with Sprinkles

4 Small Apples
300g Dark Chocolate
Sprinkles

Wooden lolly sticks

- Wash the apples and firmly put a stick in the bottom.
- 2. Melt the chocolate in a microwave for 30 seconds.
- 3. Carefully dip the apples into the melted chocolate coating them evenly.
- Sprinkle on sprinkles!
- 5. Put on greaseproof paper to set.
- *Ask a grown up to help you, as the chocolate will be hot!

Did you know?

It was a Chinese cook in the 10th century who accidentally invented fireworks by mixing the common ingredients found in the kitchen back then: sulphur, charcoal and a salt substitute.

It was once illegal not to celebrate Bonfire Night in Britain.

King Henry VII was the first-ever person to host a fireworks display.

The Houses of Parliament are still searched today. It usually happens every year, just before the State Opening of Parliament. The search is done by the Yeoman of the Guard.

Autumn Activities

Make a scrap book from the leaves, trying to identify each leaf type.

Make some leaf rubbings from the leaves you have collected. Place a leaf under a piece of paper, and rub the paper with crayon, and the leaf shape will appear.

Play 'Pooh Sticks'. This game can be played on any bridge over running water. Each person playing drops a stick into the water on the upstream side of the bridge. The one whose stick first appears on the downstream side is deemed the winner.

Use flour, water, salt and vegetable oil but add in spices such as cloves, cinnamon, ginger or nutmeg, to make you own Autumn playdoh.

Church of Christ the King Eastington

Themes

Although we have a number of different preachers, we tend to follow themes at times to provide some continuity from week to week.

In the coming months, our all-age Café Church sessions on the 2nd Sunday of the month will be going through the Old Testament story of Daniel (the one of lion's den fame) but the next one, on October 8th, is our Harvest service where there will an opportunity to give a financial donation towards the Food Crisis Appeal being organised by Compassion. As you are probably aware, there are huge problems facing many communities in the poorer parts of the world being exacerbated by climate change and conflicts affecting the price and availability of food. We are not seeking food or produce donations this year. Other Café Church services close to the main Christian Festivals such as Christmas and Easter will be on those themes.

On the other Sundays, we will be looking at the New Testament book of Philippians which was written by the Apostle Paul and addresses the new church in Philippi, then a major Greek city. It starts with a prayer near the beginning:

³ I thank my God every time I remember you. ⁴ In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy ⁵ because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, ⁶ being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1 vs 3 – 6 (NIV)

There is a warm welcome waiting for you at the Church of Christ the King Eastington if you would care to come along. Services start at 11am and the church meets in the former Eastington Methodist Hall opposite Broomhalls (GL10 3AA). Most services are followed by tea & coffee.

Eastington Baby and Toddler Group

We can confirm that the Eastington Baby and Toddler Group has now moved to Thursday mornings starting at 10am. I look forward to seeing you then. God bless, Beck Burgin 07511197265 rebecca.burgin@pikelock.com

Youth Club Update:

Youth Club continues to meet on Friday evenings at 7pm and we are likely to be in the building for the whole two hour period now that it is too dark to go to the Snakey Lane park. It is possible that we will have to suspend the youth club meetings if Ken has to have a major operation and the duration of any gap is likely to be affected by whether we can get some new volunteer leaders to provide enough adult cover. We will keep youth club members informed as the situation becomes clearer.

A Seasonal Recipe

Apple Strudel

Ingredients

750g Bramley apples, peeled, cored, quartered and sliced 1½ tsp ground cinnamon

2 tsp lemon juice

100g golden caster sugar

75g raisins

95g butter

6 large sheets filo pastry

Method

Preheat the oven to 190C/170C Fan/Gas 5. Line a baking tray with baking parchment. Mix the apples with the cinnamon and juice, sugar and raisins.

Melt the butter in a pan. On a clean, dry tea-towel lay a sheet of the filo and brush with some of the melted butter. Lay another sheet on top and repeat until you have used all of the filo. Pile the filling along the length of the pastry along one side about 2-3cm/1in from the edge and using the tea-towel to help you, roll the pastry up to enclose the filling. Tuck the ends in and roll seam-side down onto the lined baking sheet. Brush with the remaining melted butter. Bake for 40-45 minutes, until golden-brown. Leave to cool to room temperature.

Slice and serve with cream or custard.

ROTARY in the SEVERN VALE

Despite the changeable weather and annual holidays, we have maintained our regular breakfasts and ongoing community activities and social events.

At our breakfast, we welcomed a guest, Carolyn Williams, looking at us as a potential member. The speaker was Ed Davies, a fellow guide of Rob Toseland at the Jet Age Museum. Ed spent 24 years in the RAF, latterly as a weapons armourer on Vulcan Bombers. He gave a well illustrated talk on the various weapons deployed, particularly on the nuclear bombs and their development over the years. He ended with a description of the Black Buck raid on Port Stanley in the Falklands, and the number aeroplanes it involved with mid air refuelling in order to complete their long range mission. Another very popular presentation.

At our next breakfast we welcomed Daniel and James who gave a presentation on behalf of Caring for Communities and People (CCP), to which we had previously donated towards their 'Summer Box'appeal. Their mantra 'preventing the causes and reducing the effects of homelessness, family breakdown and exclusion' Founded in 1989 and based in Cheltenham, they now cover six counties from Worcestershire to Dorset providing accommodation services for homeless young people aged 18-25. They currently have over 150 in either their own purpose built accommodation or with host families. They also provide a range of community based services . . . Family Advocacy, Parenting Classes, Foodbanks, School Holiday Survival Boxes, Christmas Hampers, etc. Funding is primarily through local authority tender, often picking up contracts where existing services have broken down or funding withdrawn. A passionate presentation prompting a flurry of questions and was allowed to overrun by more than fifteen minutes.

Carolyn Williams, returned for a further meeting and having decided to join will duly be proposed as a member. The speakers were Louise Cook and Sue Parres from Longfield Hospice. They spoke about the services they provide, focused on 'helping people to live before they die'. They offer a Home Hospice service, a Wellbeing Day Centre with numerous activities, together with ongoing counselling supporting affected spouses, partners and families, as well as the patients themselves. Most of these are not funded by the government or the NHS, and they rely largely on donations. Louise had checked their records and found that over the years Rotary Club of Severn Vale had contributed £5,000 through our various endeavours.

Community Service and Fundraising continues with volunteer support at Longfield Fete and Frampton Country Fair together with the running the Arlingham Walk and our very successful annual Motoring Event. As do, of course, social activities which included Boules matches, a family BBQ and a visit to a Wind & Solar Farm near Shrivenham, which was followed an enjoyable traditional pub lunch. If you' like to come along to one of our breakfast meetings on first and third Tuesday of the month at The Whitminster Inn at 07.15, are interested in attending one of our events or would like to volunteer with us for one of our chosen charities, please visit www.severnvalerotary.org.uk or contact keith.rog@hotmail.com

Are you struggling with damp and mould in your home?

Our Research and Campaigns team have been gathering evidence about the problem as we have seen a significant increase in the number of people coming to us about it.

There are many types of damp, the most common ones being rising, penetrating, construction and condensation damp. On our website (www.citizensadvice.org.uk) there is information that may help you work out what type of damp you have, who is responsible and what you can do.

It is important to keep homes well-heated and well-ventilated to prevent damp and mould – you may be eligible for help to insulate and heat your home.

If you are a tenant it can be difficult to work out if your landlord is responsible - check your tenancy agreement for mentions of repairs and damp. A landlord will have to act in relation to damp if it makes the property unsafe for someone to live in. The landlord will also be responsible if the damp is related to repairs they should have carried out. If the damp has damaged items that the landlord is responsible for, such as carpets and window frames, they'll likely have to cover the cost of repairs.

If your landlord is responsible for the damp in your property but doesn't act, there are steps you can take, such as reporting them to the local authority. If you're in social housing you might also be able to use the landlord's formal complaints procedure.

If you cannot access the website or need further help after looking at it, you can contact us on 0808 800 0510 or email using the form on our local website (www.citizensadvice-stroudandcotswold.org.uk).

If you would like to send in an article, story or photo, please email them to articles@eastington.website Deadline for the next exciting issue is

Monday 13th November

For delivery around
